

Advantage, part of the Hastings Group, is an established Gibraltar based insurer authorised to underwrite private motor and home insurance in the United Kingdom. With nearly 3m customers, we are one of the largest insurers in Gibraltar.

We are seeking a Claims Technician to join our Claims Team.

Claims Technician

Accountabilities:

- To manage a caseload of bodily injury large losses including some high value personal injury claims including ensuring cases are reported to reinsurers correctly.
- Actively participating in and making case reserve recommendations in the Large Loss Committee.
- Identifying claims that are reportable to reinsurers.
- To manage a case load of large household claims including ensuring cases are reported to reinsurers correctly
- To participate in auditing large losses and other relevant claims.
- To help develop the claims oversight framework.

We are looking for dynamic individuals who enjoy working in a fast-paced, team centric environment. We offer flexible working hours, great work life balance and competitive remuneration.

Competencies

- Organised with attention to detail
- Excellent analytical and communication skills
- Problem-solving skills and a proactive approach to work
- Competent/advanced Microsoft Excel and Office user
- Team Player that enjoys new challenges

Experience and skills

- Educated to degree level preferred, but not essential.
- Progression towards insurance qualification.

If you would like to apply for this position, or would like more information, please send your CV and a covering letter to hr@advantage.com.gi by 17th October 2022.

CV's from Agencies will not be considered.